

Ethical Lifestyle Hub Membership Criteria

Please check the criteria before you apply, your business will need to fit at least in one of the criteria categories to be considered for a membership

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA

Ethical and Fair Trade Fairtrade

- Accredited World Fair Trade Organisation Organisations working directly with producers/farmers and contribution to social and development
- Member of the Fair Trade Association of Australia and New Zealand (FTAANZ)
- Ethical Clothing Australia
- Creative craft industries
- Ethical services eg.
- Investment funds Fair trade workplaces and universities

Social Enterprises

- Profit or not for profit business addressing local or disadvantage communities with their commercial activities
- Business that has a positive social outcome and contributes to social development
- Businesses explicitly focused on addressing Australian Indigenous empowerment and economic development
- B Corps - businesses that are BCorp accredited

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA

NGO or campaign groups

- NGO or campaign groups with explicit objectives or campaigns relating to fair trade, justice for developing country farmer or workers, overseas development

Animal Welfare Friendly

- Business and organisation supporting or implementing ethical food and food production Free range
- Animal welfare groups
- Business supporting no animal testing
- Business advocating ethical food production

Environmentally Friendly & Sustainable Production

- Business or organisations growing or selling local food product from small farmers
- Handicrafts from small local producers and co-operatives
- Environmental sustainable groups and businesses
- Recycled Sustainable fashion
- Organic and Natural Foods Organic and Natural products
- Organic food and environmental groups like businesses that are able to demonstrate ethical and environmental standards like growing, selling local, organic food products from small farmers