

re-generation international youth film festival '22

short film competition & international youth film festival

seats limited
BOOK NOW!

moral FAIRGROUND evolve with us

School Broadcasting Network

Los Angeles International Children's Film Festival

Young Filmmakers Contest

Adobe

friday 12th august immigration museum

PROGRAM 1

PROGRAM 2

The vibrant, multi-awarded and totally mesmerizing animation Star Thief tells the tale of the Moon's journey to retrieve the stars after they are devoured by a thief.

Star Thief
Julia Madeleine Stella, Australia

The empowering documentary Generation X: The Coder tells of young Jay Jay Patton, who built a mobile app so kids can send photos & letters to incarcerated parents.

Generation X: The Coder
Samantha Knowles, USA

Multi-awarded Driver's Ed is a humorous anatomy of the many trials and tribulations involved in that all-important moment of finally gaining a driver's license.

Driver's Ed
Dana Koops, USA/France

With all the painful awkwardness of adolescence, the light-hearted touching story First Love follows 13-year-old Jacob's attempts to impress the girl he adores.

First Love
Beatrice Woo / Ashley Rose Finch, Canada

One Earth Young Filmmakers Contest awardee Bad Bugs is a brilliant Claymation by 10-year-old Bryn, the youngest filmmaker selected for the re-generation film festival.

Bad Bugs
Bryn Wright, USA

Shipwreck explores a young girl's emergence from the depths of despair, as she navigates her way through grief, loss, and her sense of identity.

Shipwreck
Lisa Cole, USA

Award winning Biff & Me tells of two unlikely best friends, and demonstrates how we can all be who we are, even if we are unsure of who that really is.

Biff & Me
Nicola Rose, USA

Cracked, a multi-awarded festival favourite, tells of a young girl's dedication to honouring her deal with nature when her family faces water shortages in their arid village.

Cracked
Mahmut Tas, Turkey

The heartwarming documentary Agricola 7101 is a multi-selected and award-winning short film all about freedom and 'restoration', both physical and spiritual.

Agricola 7101
Ivy Tucker, Australia

One Earth Young Filmmakers Contest Wild Ones Environmental Sponsorship awardee 2021 A Home for Us All is a wonderful origami stop-motion with an important message.

A Home for Us All
Lena Song, USA

With over 900 official selections, including Oscar qualifying festivals & 340 awards worldwide, Radheya Jegatheva is one of Australia's most awarded young filmmakers.

Showreel
Radheya Jegatheva, Australia

Koala Protection is the One Earth Young Filmmakers Contest winner of the 2022 Jane Goodall Institute Australia Activism Award and the title speaks for itself!

Koala Protection
LiveLab Griffith Film School, Australia

The award winning student short films announced at the re-generation youth film festival, will be screened at each of the sessions.

The Amazing Adventures of Awesome is a stunning, multi-awarded, hand-drawn animated film based on the animator's experiences with her autistic child.

The Amazing Adventures of Awesome
Allison Brownmore, UK