Award Opportunity for Ethical Businesses

Moral Fairground's Ethical Enterprise Award 2016 is back in its fourth year. The event recognises and celebrates the achievements of Australia's most inspirational enterprises. Winners will be announced at the Ethical Enterprise Conference dinner on 20 October 2016, set to be held at the Jasper Hotel, Melbourne.

"The winner will receive a $10,000 gift and gain national recognition throughout the business, non-profit and social enterprise sector for their contribution to society, and their unique vision and leadership" said Susanna Bevilacqua, founder of Moral Fairground, award co-founder.

This year additional prizes are included $7,500 cash for the runner-up and third prize winner will receive $15,000 worth of professional business coaching via One10 founder and entrepreneur, Geoff Gourley. All Award recipients will have access to an array of networking, media and promotional opportunities, advertising and business development packages.

Early ethical entrepreneurs are encouraged to submit an application for the Early Ethical Entrepreneur Pitch Competition 2016 – finalists will have the opportunity to deliver their pitch at the Ethical Enterprise Conference 20 October 2016. A panel of professional judges will select the winner on the day and offer professional coaching and networks to help early entrepreneurs set up their business.

Applications open July 1, 2016
